

NSHa!

Language Courses
2019 / 2020

NSHere is where you should be!

Because we pick you up, where you are right now. It does not matter, if you are at the beginning of learning a language or if you want to deepen your current knowledge of a language: We definitely help you achieve your goal!

We know a thing or two about languages – The NSH, formally known as «Neue Sprach und Handelsschule» has offered a wide variety of courses since 1950. Regardless of whether you only have time in the evening or on Saturday, we have the right course for you! If you want a more personal experience, our individual lessons offer the maximum amount of flexibility in both course content and course hours.

So please come by. Our central location directly at the train station Basel SBB, not far away from the city centre is extremely convenient. We look forward to welcoming you!

Birgit Czisla, Head of Language School | Ilinca Breitung, Overall Manager | Andrea Kunz, Head of Business School

Heartfelt congratulations

Congratulations? Yes, for your interest in furthering your education and your willingness to invest in your future.

For this decision, you deserve not only great respect but also qualified instructors, personal support, up-to-date teaching materials and individualised advice. Exactly what we provide.

Welcome to the NSH!

Summary - Language Levels

Common European Framework of Reference

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) provides the international context for the development of targeted lesson plans, examinations and teaching materials.

Benefits for you

- Comparability across the certificates
- Possibility of transferring to other locations in the European region without difficulty
- Course contents are clearly defined
- Consistency amongst courses across different institutions

Our course designations are listed according to these levels. In this way, you can quickly review the entire range and select the course that is best suited to you.

 C2 Language skills approaching native fluency It's hard to tell that I'm a non-native speaker.	Competent language use
 C1 Expert language skills I can understand television programmes and films. I rarely search for words when I speak and I can express myself in a clear and structured manner when writing.
 B2 Independent language use I can follow extended discussions and complex arguments as long as I have some familiarity with the subject. I can make myself reasonably understood.	Independent language use
 B1 Advanced language use I can handle most situations that arise when I travel where the language is spoken. I can explain and justify my opinion and plans.
 A2 Basic skills I can read short, simple texts and carry on conversations on familiar subjects and activities.	Basic language use
 A1 Beginner If people speak slowly and clearly to me, I can make myself understood in simple sentences.

In cooperation with Rosetta Stone we offer you the opportunity to learn goal-oriented, flexible and at your own pace. The Flatrate Package allows you to learn 1:1 with native speakers in individual lessons. These lessons are adapted to your performance level. Talking about current topics and come across new words will increase your language level significantly. Rosetta Stone's unique approach allows you to learn your chosen language quickly and efficiently, whether you are a beginner or an advanced learner.

These are the four core elements of the program:

- 1. Language Training: You can improve your knowledge in German, English or French or learn one of another 20 languages from scratch.
- 2. 1:1 online lessons: Learn together with your coach in a private online lesson. Tuition takes place with native speakers and is adjusted to your learning progress.
- 3. E-Learning materials: An extensive range of E-Learning materials is available to support text comprehension, grammar, vocabulary development and, with the latest voice recognition software, speech.
- 4. Placement test: Beginner, intermediate and advanced learning paths allow you to reach your learning objectives faster and to begin at the right level.
